

Perspectives Leader's Intensive: August 15-21, 2010

- Are you seeking to broaden your awareness of the Global Church?
- Are you interested in digging deeper into the Missional Calling of the Church?
- Are you looking for a good mission-related option for Continuing Education this year?

If you answered, "Yes!" to any of these questions, you should consider taking part in Perspectives!

Join with pastors and church leaders as we spend one week deeply considering God's mission for the church. This one week offers the full Perspectives class with challenging content, inspiring teaching, time for fellowship, and cross-cultural excursions in Pittsburgh.

Why a 1-Week Format?

Many pastors, church leaders, full time ministry staff and missionaries have found this schedule their most convenient option for taking PERSPECTIVES.

Where?

The campus of Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, <http://www.pts.edu>. Perspectives is sponsored by the World Mission Initiative program in connection with the Continuing Education Office <http://www.pts.edu/continuing-education> at PTS.

How does the Leaders' Intensive version work?

Classes are taught by a variety of dynamic speakers representing different backgrounds, education and experience, including pastors, missionaries, and professors. Lectures are complemented by discussions, activities, and opportunities to discern implications for local congregations. Certificate, Undergraduate, & Graduate study levels available.

Required study through the first 5 lessons prior to the start of class. Completion of all readings, reviews & a project is extended to November 15, 2010 for those who wish to complete the certificate level.

How do I sign up?

For more information, check out the website -- <http://www.worldmissioninitiative.org/perspectives.htm> or contact Jen Haddox, jhaddox@pts.edu or (412) 924-1440. Reserve your place today -- When registration becomes available, you will be notified.