

Alternative Holiday Gift Fair – Mark Your Calendars!

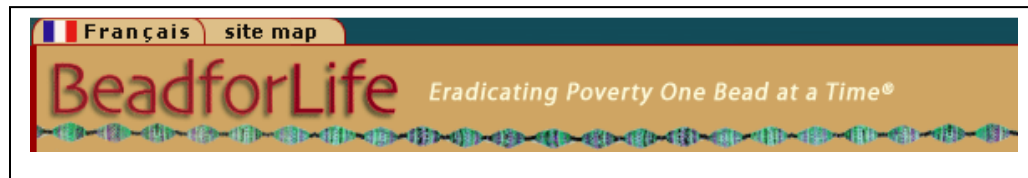

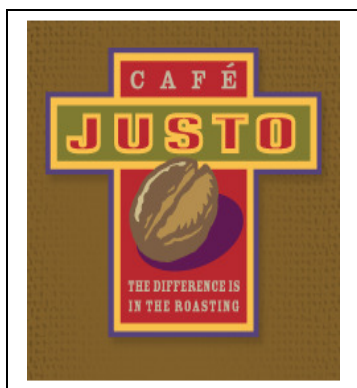

Are you looking for a special "gift" this year - one that will make you feel good, that will make your recipient feel good, and make a difference to someone else ?

Get a start on Holiday Gift Giving with an afternoon of shopping at the UPC Alternative Gift Fair. On Sunday, November 1st, University Presbyterian Church will host an Alternative Gift Fair from 12:00 to 2:00, following the second service. Reid Hall will be the site of this "International Shopping Mall", offering items that support worthy causes from around the world.

Expect to find colorful, unique Paper Bead Jewelry from Uganda, Olive Oil from Gaza, Coffee, T-shirts and Mugs from Just Coffee in Mexico. You will be able to purchase beautifully Painted Tin Art, created from hammered out oil drums by talented young people from a Haitian Orphanage. If you're looking for wall art, you can find colorful Framed Photographs of Africa supporting the Mothers Clubs of Tanzania. Or adorn someone with Beaded Jewelry made by women of the Masaai from Tanzania, or the favorite House Pins to support Habitat for Humanity.

Alternative gifts of Cash Donations will also be available at the Fair. These can go to sponsor Heifer International (pigs, goats, rabbits, etc) or to Church World Service (blankets, clean water kits, etc) or to Mothers Clubs of Tanzania or Both Your Hands for micro loans and other projects in Africa.

This is your "One-Stop-Feel-Good-Shopping" for all (or at least some) of your Holiday Gift-giving. Join us on November 1st for a fun and fruitful event!!
