THE AUDIENCE CHOICE IS A CHRISTMAS PIE

The Freudig Singers will serve stunning Christmas music when they host A Christmas Pie: Audience Choice concerts on December 5th and 6th. This will be the tenth year the Freudig Singers have wowed audiences by singing the season's most interesting musical offerings, collaborating with wonderful children's choirs and dishing out post-concert pie to hundreds in a unique Buffalo tradition.

In addition to dozens of scrumptious pies donated by Murphy's Main Street Station in Hamburg and a raffle of pies baked by the singers, the Freudigs will serve up delicious carols written by Johann Sebastian Bach, Elziarii Geneti, John Joubert, Vernon Hoyl, Orlandus Lassus, and their own Music Director, Roland E. Martin. Roses, Diamonds and a Boar's Head are also on the menu.

A Christmas Pie: Audience Choice featuring The Buffalo Seminary Glee Club will be served on Saturday December 5 at 7:30 p.m. at St. John's Grace Episcopal Church, 51 Colonial Circle in Buffalo.

A second helping of Pie, with The Hamburg Middle School Choralistas, will be served on Sunday December 6 at 7:00 p.m. at the Orchard Park Presbyterian Church, 4369 South Buffalo Street.

Tickets are $12/$10 for students or seniors (pie included) and are available at the door. Presale tickets at $10/$8 and group discounts are available by calling 716.667.7088 or visiting the Freudig Singers online at www.freudigsingers.org. Presale reservations are highly recommended as the tickets are selling like... like hotcakes.
